

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Reservations:

The charter is not confirmed until full payment is received. Payment is due by cash or credit card.

The individual making the reservation(s) is the responsible party for payment of the charter and any additional costs. The responsible party reserving the dates in the name of a business, charity, alias, or other name, is responsible to provide payment on their behalf. Additionally, individuals invited to participate in the activities of the charter are guests of the responsible party that reserved the charter and have no legal standing.

The individual booking the charter is responsible for sharing all charter information and the “Terms and Conditions” with every guest they have invited on the charter. Terms and Conditions may be changed at any time by LG Boat Rentals as seen fit.

The charter party must arrive 30 minutes prior to the start of the reservation to fill out the necessary paperwork and training to guarantee the full cruising time.

A charter confirmation email will be sent upon receipt of payment. Additional information will be sent to the responsible party 24 hours before the start of the charter. Furthermore, the responsible party shall update contact information in a timely manner should any change in contact information previously supplied to LG Boat Rentals take place.

A security deposit of $200.00 will be required on the day of charter with a credit card.

Safety:

Safety is of the utmost importance. All decisions regarding safety and/or weather-related conditions will be made by the captain at the starting time of the charter. If needed, the charter will be rescheduled for an alternative date. If your charter is postponed prior to leaving the dock, and alternative dates are unavailable, you may request a refund.

Boating, fishing, and other activities aboard a boat are physically demanding. Each guest is responsible for deciding if they are physically capable of participating in this type of activity. Contact LG Boat Rentals directly to discuss any special accommodation.

We provide enough United States Coast Guard approved life jackets on board to accommodate everyone in the charter party. Any passenger 12 and under is required by law to always wear a life jacket.

The captain, owner, and crew shall not be held liable for any injury or fatality caused by direct or indirect action of the charter party.

Food & Beverage:

The charter does NOT provide food or beverages. You can bring a small to medium-sized cooler with drinks and snacks, the charter WILL provide ice.

Alcohol is permitted for guests 21+. In the event the guests of the charter become intoxicated to the point that the captain determines that they are a hazard to themselves or others, the charter will be immediately terminated without refund or time credit, and the boat will be returned to the dock. Smoking is NOT permitted.
